Mysuru-Nanjangud NH to be accident-free soon

NHAI prepares Rs. 127.01 crore master plan; works begin at some places

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (PM&VNS) – The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has rolled out a Rs. 127.01 crore master plan to develop the Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway (NH 766, formerly NH 212) into an accident-free zone. Some of the works have already begun like under-bridges at APMC, Bandipalya, connecting Nanjangud Highway with the Outer Ring Road (ORR).

With eight accident-prone black spots identified, the project focuses on public safety and accident prevention through strategic infrastructure upgrades.

The Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway, linking Karnataka with Kerala and Tamil Nadu, has witnessed a high frequency of accidents, often resulting in serious injuries and fatalities.

Recently, a tragic accident near Hirikati Gate claimed the lives of three persons from the same family, underscoring the urgent need for intervention.

Under-bridge work in progress this morning near APMC, Bandipalya, Nanjangud Highway.

Overspeeding, reckless driving and inadequate road infrastructure have contributed to repeated accidents, making the highway one of the most dangerous stretches in the region. To address these issues, NHAI has identified black spots, where more than 10 accidents leading to fatalities occurred within three years.

These locations are plagued by sharp turns, hidden junctions, poor visibility or lack of proper signage, making them highly vulnerable to collisions.

Sites without documentation to get B-Khata, says CM

Property owners in Urban Local Bodies including MCC to benefit

Bengaluru, Jan. 30 (KMS& DM)- In a major relief to property owners, the State Government has decided to issue B-Khata to nearly 32 lakh properties without complete documentation within Urban Local Bodies (ULBs) limits, excluding Bengaluru.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah recently issued an order approving this initiative as a one-time facility to regularise properties lacking complete documentation. This will directly benefit property and site owners in various ULBs, including Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

The decision follows a meeting held on Jan. 7 in Bengaluru, where the CM instructed officials to grant an equivalent B-Khata certificate, recorded as e-Property, to property owners without all necessary supporting documents.

To speed up implementation, the CM has directed officials to launch a three-month campaign-style drive to ensure that all eligible properties receive B-Khata certification under the one-time model.

The move comes in response to a recent Supreme Court order on unauthorised sites and layouts, which directs all States to take immediate steps to regularise properties sans proper approvals.

Interim relief to retired Judge probing MUDA case

Centre's order had debarred Justice P.N. Desai from Government appointments for 3 years

P.N. Desai

Bengaluru, Jan. 30 (Agencies)- The Karnataka High Court has issued an interim stay on a November 2024 order by the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions that barred Justice Padmaraj Nemachandra Desai, who had retired from the Court, from taking up Government appointments for three years.

"There shall be an ad-interim order of stay of the impugned order, till the next hearing date," the High Court said. Justice P.N. Desai has been appointed by the State Government as the One-Man Commission of Inquiry, to probe the alleged Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) sites scam, involving Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and others.

On Tuesday, a Bench of Justice R. Devdas issued an interim stay on the Union Ministry's order until the next hearing date in the matter, Feb. 6.

Senior advocate Udaya Holla, representing Justice Desai, argued that the retired Judge had made a communication on Aug. 14, 2024, to the effect that he thanked the Government for his appointment as a Member of the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT) but he could not take up the role as he had already accepted the assignment of the Karnataka Government.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

KARMA AND WORSHIP: Devotion can be of two types — through one's knowledge or intelligence, and through one's consciousness. The former is compared with a baby monkey holding its leaping mother with a firm grip, while the latter is akin to a mother cat holding her kitten by the jaw in order to transfer it. The first one is risky because the baby monkey will fall if its grip loosens. In the second, the kitten remains free of tension.

Lanka Sri Jeyaraj said in a discourse that deeds carried out in previous births, bundled as karma (destiny), play a pivotal role in a person's life. It is worth pondering why good men suffer in poverty while the envious prosper (Avviya Nenjathan — Kural 169).

Thiruvalluvar has devoted a chapter exclusively to describe the cause and effects of our previous deeds. Saint Arunagirinathar says that we can count even the particles of sand in the seven seas but not the number of births to which we have been subjected due to our karma.

Four forms of worship are prescribed — Chariya, Kriya, Yoga and Jnana. Chariya refers to virtue and selfless service. It is the path to servitude. Kriya denotes deep devotion through Bhakti. While Chariya is an external mode of worship, Kriya is internal. Yoga represents the process of unifying with God within oneself. It is an inner discovery. Jnana is divine wisdom emanating from an enlightened being. Each form of worship does not compete with the others but rather complements them.

A coconut sapling takes several months to sprout, whereas green gram sprouts in a few days. The mode of worship differs from person to person based on past deeds. — In The Hindu

Man launches 'Villain for Hire' service

Kuala Lumpur: A Malaysian man has sparked controversy on social media by announcing an ingenious service where he rents himself out as a "villain" that harasses clients' partners, allowing the latter to pose as heroes by confronting him.

Earlier this month, 28-year-old Shazali Sulaiman took Malaysian social media by storm by announcing a "villain for hire" service that would allow clients to show off their masculinity and make a big impression on their partners or romantic crushes.

After being told that his unkept long hair and biker clothing make him look like a gang member, Sulaiman was inspired to start a service that relied on his physical appearance to make a profit. For a fee, clients can set up a time and place where he would show up to pick on their partner, thus giving them a chance to intervene and pose as a hero or a knight in shining armour.

The world's most expensive street

Milan: For the longest time, New York's Upper Fifth Avenue held the title of 'the most expensive street in the world' but it was recently dethroned by Montenapoleone, an upscale shopping street in Milan, Italy.

Fifth Avenue has been ranking first out of 138 leading retail destinations around the world for many years, but last year, it was surpassed by Montenapoleone, the most popular luxury shopping street in Milan.

Not only is this short street a magnet for tourists interested only in window shopping, but it also attracts some of the wealthiest people around the globe, many of who spend at least 2,500 euros (2,600 dollars) per purchase, the highest average receipt in the world.

Garbage management need of the hour

Sir,

This is to bring to light the sorry state of affairs as regards the garbage management by the designated authorities for Vijayanagar 4th Stage, 2nd Phase, Mysuru.

The picture above shows the depth of lack of responsibility and awareness by the citizens and the authorities concerned. The residents from nearby areas come and throw the trash indiscriminately but the daily garbage collection vehicle is not regularly clearing the wastes. This scene is on the road in front of our house. It has become next to impossible to walk on the road with so much dirt and stink. The cattle and street dogs also eat all these trash items.

I request the MCC Commissioner to look into this and find a lasting solution.

Harassment from microfinance companies

Two from Mandya commit suicide

Sanjay

Prema

Mandya, Jan. 30 (KS)- Two persons including a woman in Mandya district have committed suicide following alleged harassment from the representatives of microfinance companies.

Those who ended their lives are Sanjay (34), a young farmer from Dugganahalli village, Malavalli taluk and Prema (52), a resident of Konnapura village near Halagur, Malavalli taluk, both in Mandya district.

It is learnt that Sanjay had obtained Rs. 1 lakh loan from a private finance company, Rs. 50,000 from a Society and Rs. 10 lakh from private money lenders and had recently sunk two borewells for agricultural purpose but failed to get water.

As harassment from the representatives of the microfinance company and money lenders for the repayment of loans increased, Sanjay reportedly hanged self. A case has been registered at Malavalli Rural Police Station.

In another case, Prema (52), unable to bear the harassment from the representatives of microfinance company, who had attempted to end her live by consuming poison, has breathed her last yesterday.

Prema had taken a loan from a private finance company in Channapatna taluk but had failed to repay the loan amount following which the finance company had seized her house.

Depressed over this, Prema had consumed poison at about 11.30 am on Tuesday and was rushed to Halagur Hospital where she was given first-aid and was later admitted in an ICU at Mandya District Hospital for further treatment, where she breathed her last on Wednesday.

It is learnt that Prema had obtained a loan of Rs. 6 lakh from the private finance company and was paying the monthly instalments since five to six years. But she was told that the instalments were adjusted to the interest and the principal amount was renewed as a new loan for which interest was added and she was told to pay a total of Rs. 8 lakh and a notice was also served to Prema.

As there was a delay in Prema remitting the loan amount, the private finance company had seized the house she and her family were residing following which Prema and her family members began to stay in their relative's house. Depressed over this, Prema had consumed poison on Tuesday morning.

Labourer's death in building collapse

Rs. 5 lakh relief from CM's Fund

Saddam Hussain

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (RK&BS)- Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy has assured to provide a compensation of Rs. 5 lakh from Chief Minister's Relief Fund to the next of kin of the labourer Saddam Hussain (31), who was killed, when a part of the building of Maharani's Science College for Women on JLB Road in the city collapsed on Tuesday evening.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, DC Lakshmikanth Reddy said, "When I brought the matter to the notice of the Chief Minister, the latter assured to provide Rs. 5 lakh from CM's Relief Fund. A proposal in this regard would be submitted to the Chief Minister's Office (CMO) to facilitate the compensation. Besides, the contractor who has taken up the work of the college building has provided a compensation on his own. The District Administration too, shall be helping the bereaved family on humanitarian grounds."

Following the collapse of the building, the works on demolishing and reconstructing the building have been stopped for now. The further decision shall be taken in consultation with the experts and officials.

Eyes of 3 accident victims to give vision for needy

Bhagyamma, her son Shashidhar & daughter-in-law Shalini

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (PM&BS)- In a humanitarian gesture, the relatives of three of a family, who were killed in a accident near Hirikati gate on Mysuru-Gundlupet Road on Tuesday, donated the eyes of the deceased, bringing a ray of hope in the lives of visually challenged persons, waiting for eye transplant.

Bhagyamma, her son Shashidhar and daughter-in-law Shalini, of Kudlapura village in Nanjangud taluk in the district, were killed on the spot, when a car allegedly hit their two-wheeler. The trio were returning home from Chikkadevammana Betta in H.D. Kote taluk, at the time of the accident.

Shashidhar and Shalini had been married for nine months, leaving their relatives grief-stricken following their untimely death.

Their bodies had been shifted to the mortuary of K.R. Hospital for post-mortem, where the relatives consented to donate the eyes of the deceased to Eye Bank of K.R. Hospital. About 12 visually challenged persons are expected to get their vision, following the transplantation surgery.

C. Gurusiddaiah, the uncle of Shashidhar, who was at the mortuary, told Star of Mysore "We have lost three members of our family. However, they will be lighting the lives of others, with their eyes donated for noble purpose."

Fate of good debates uncertain with lack of experts: Speaker

Mysuru, Jan.30 (BLU&DM)- Expressing concern that industrialists are replacing subject experts in the Legislature, Karnataka Assembly Speaker U.T. Khader wondered what would happen to the debates in the Upper and Lower Houses of the Legislature in the next 10 years if this trend continued.

He was speaking at an interaction meet organised by Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) at its premises on Thyagaraja Road here yesterday.

Pointing out that the Houses used to see good subject-based debates on various issues in the past, Khader underlined the role of the media on giving prominence to subject based debates and discussions rather than political issues. Bemoaning that recently, debates are going on statements by Political leaders more than on issues bothering the State, he said that this is not a good development concerning the Legislature.

"The Assembly Speaker should function as a friend of the Opposition. On the other hand, the ruling dispensation too should have the resolve to positively accept constructive criticisms by Opposition parties. However, the Speaker should also side with the Government sometimes, depending upon the situation. The Legislature demands such a scenario to pass Bills in a fixed time or otherwise, this will affect the functioning of the Government," he argued.

U.T. Khader, Karnataka Legislative Assembly Speaker

Continuing, he said: "In the past, the Legislature used to witness good and purposeful debates because there were many subject experts in the Legislature then. But now, the situation has changed completely, with Businessmen, Entrepreneurs and Industrialists entering the Houses. With their entry, the Houses depart from traditional discussions and pave the way for discussing issues concerning Industrialists and Businessmen."

He expressed concern about the functioning of the Houses and the debates and discussions that would take place in the Legislature in the next few years.

Replying to a question on Minister Lakshmi Hebbalkar Vs BJP MLC C.T. Ravi row that erupted during last month's Belagavi Legislature Session, with Ravi reportedly making insulting and abusive remarks against the Minister, Khader defended the Legislative Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti's decision, saying he was supportive of the Chairman, who is competent enough to handle the row in an appropriate manner.

Bengaluru Press Club award recipient Dayashankar Maili, KUWJ (Karnataka Union of Working Journalists) Annual Endowment award recipients K.P. Nagaraj, P. Shilpa, Guruprasad Tumbasoge, Nazeer Ahmed, Shivakumar V. Rao and C.J. Puneeth were felicitated on the occasion.

MDJA President K. Deepak, Vice-President Ravi Pandavapura, Gen. Secretary Dharmapura Narayan, Secretary Krishnojirao and others were present.

ED proceedings against former MUDA Commissioner 'illegal'

Search at Dr. D.B. Natesh's premises arbitrary, amounted to abuse of legal process: High Court

Bengaluru, Jan. 30 (Agencies)- In a ruling that could impact the money laundering probe into the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site allotment scandal involving Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi, Karnataka High Court (HC) on Monday held that the Enforcement Directorate's (ED) searches and summons against former MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh were illegal.

Dr. Natesh

Natesh, who led MUDA in 2021 when 14 housing sites were allotted to Parvathi, moved the High Court after the ED searched his residence from Oct. 28 to Oct. 29, 2024, under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), 2002.

He also challenged the ED's summons issued on Oct. 29 and Nov. 6, along with the statements recorded by the agency, arguing that he was not named as an accused in the predicate offence of alleged corruption, which was registered by the Karnataka Lokayukta Police against Siddaramaiah, his wife and others on Sept. 28, 2024.

Search illegal

The High Court ruled that the searches at Natesh's residence and the statements recorded under Section 17(1)(f) of the PMLA were invalid and illegal due to the absence of "reason to believe" in the ED's actions.

Justice Hemant Chandangoudar, presiding over a Single-Judge Bench, quashed the ED's summons under Section 50 of the PMLA and all statements recorded during the investigation.

The High Court observed that since Natesh was not named in the predicate corruption offence, he could not be compelled to provide information about the alleged illegal allotment of 14 sites. It further noted that the ED, as a premier investigative agency, must act with fairness.

Abuse of legal process

Upholding the right to liberty and privacy under Article 21 of the Constitution, the Court ruled that the search at Natesh's premises was arbitrary and amounted to an abuse of legal process, as no prima facie evidence existed under Section 3 of the PMLA.

The Court also pointed out that while the predicate offence involved site allotments during Natesh's tenure, there was no proof that he received any financial benefit from these transactions.

Referring to the sealed cover report submitted by the ED, the Court noted that no specific allegations were made against Natesh apart from the claim that he improperly allotted sites to Parvathi and was "close to realtors."

Stating that the search and seizure were unwarranted, the HC ruled that the ED's actions were based on unfounded suspicion.

Summons lacked legal authority

With no prima facie case against Natesh, the HC ruled that the summons issued by the ED were without legal authority.

The Court stated that he could not be forced to appear, record statements or produce documents, as this would infringe upon his liberty.

The Court also stressed that the ED must uphold procedural fairness in enforcing the PMLA and that the right to liberty and privacy cannot be trampled upon without due process.

Bangalore Palace land controversy

Governor gives assent to Ordinance bypassing TDR

Bengaluru, Jan. 30 (BCT)- Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot on Jan. 29 gave his assent to the Bangalore Palace Utilisation and Regulation of Land Ordinance, 2025, which was passed in the last Cabinet meeting.

The Ordinance allows the State Government to bypass the Supreme Court's directive to grant Rs. 3,011 crore in Transferable Development Rights (TDR) to the legal heirs of the Maharaja of Mysore.

With the Ordinance now in effect, the State reserves the right not to acquire portions of the disputed Bangalore Palace land, a decision that is expected to impact infrastructure projects, particularly the widening of Ballari Road and Jayamahal Road, two crucial arterial roads in the heart of Bengaluru that lead to Kempegowda International Airport at Devanahalli.

Shield against contempt proceedings

The timing of this move is significant as it comes just a week before the Supreme Court is scheduled to take up the matter again.

The Ordinance provides a legal shield to the Government against contempt proceedings initiated by the erstwhile Mysore Royal Family over the delay in granting compensation. On Dec. 10, 2024, the Supreme Court set a 45-day deadline for the State to issue TDR, a deadline that expired on Jan. 22.

In its Ordinance, the Government argues that complying with the Supreme Court order would place an enormous financial burden on the Karnataka exchequer and disrupt Bengaluru's urban planning.

Government cites legal standing

The Ordinance states that the total value of the 472 acres and 16 guntas of Bangalore Palace land has been determined under Sections 8 and 9 of the Bangalore Palace (Acquisition & Transfer) Act, 1996, amounting to just Rs. 11 crore.

It further clarifies that the Karnataka High Court has upheld the constitutional validity of the 1996 Act, and there is no stay order from the Supreme Court on its implementation. The Government also points out that a separate Supreme Court Bench, in a contempt case, had directed that TDR be granted based on the prevailing guidance value of adjoining areas.

Despite this, the Government argues that since civil cases related to the Act's validity are still pending before the Supreme Court, issuing TDR would be an irreversible process and could have severe financial consequences for the State.

Thaawarchand Gehlot, Karnataka Governor

State's authority to use Palace Land

The Ordinance empowers the State to utilise any portion of the Bangalore Palace land under Section 4 of the 1996 Act. However, it also states that portions of the land not required for infrastructure projects will be restored. Regardless of any previous Court rulings or Government decisions, the State retains full authority to proceed with infrastructure projects as per the 1996 Act.

The Ordinance specifies that compensation for any part of Bangalore Palace will be provided strictly as per the 1996 Act's valuation, which is Rs. 2.30 lakh per acre, amounting to Rs. 11 crore for the entire land.

It categorically states that claimants are not entitled to any additional compensation, irrespective of future Court rulings. In case of any dispute, the compensation amount will be deposited with the Commissioner, in accordance with the valuation set by the 1996 Act.

No right to reclaim compensation

The Ordinance makes it clear that claimants cannot reclaim compensation without submitting a certified final decree from a competent Civil Court. If a Court imposes an injunction on the decree, the Commissioner cannot release the compensation. In addition, the Ordinance grants legal immunity to Government officers and agencies involved in the matter. It states that no civil or criminal proceedings can be initiated against any Government official, as the notification has been issued in good faith.

Regardless of any future Court rulings, the Ordinance ensures that State officials will not be held liable for penalties or legal consequences.

Abracadabra... Abracadabra...

Beware! Donald Trump is back as US President

US President Donald Trump

Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde

Prime Minister Narendra Modi

Today no country in the world matters much other than America (USA) in international trade, commerce, war and peace. Donald Trump, its President, is like an elephant in US politics that knows its strength. Which is why, he seems unpredictable to some.

— Abracadabra of 4.12.2024

America, United States of America, in truth is a country of immigrants. That was written boldly in a banner hoisted at eye-level across a building at a small town in Texas that I visited in 1992. Some Hispanic and mixed group of people were protesting in a street corner. Apparently, the protest was about government's action against illegal immigrants. Like Birthright Citizenship, in America protesting at the drop of a hat is also a birthright! Like Lokmanya Tilak saying, "Freedom is my birthright and I shall have it" when we were under the British.

I remembered all this after listening to President Donald Trump's inaugural speech on 20th, January 2025.

I am an unabashed Trump bhakt, as also a Modi bhakt, but as Dr. B.R. Ambedkar had advised we Indians, I am not laying my liberties at the feet of these great men. I also do not trust them with their immense power because that power may enable them to subvert our Democratic Institutions and even the Constitution. Trump allegedly tried it when he lost the 2020 election to Joe Biden. He has done it now after winning the 2024 election with his Executive Order undoing the Birthright Citizenship provided in the American Constitution, for example. Just as Indira Gandhi did with our Constitution after declaring Emergency in 1975. Of course, Trump is challenged in the Courts. Our Modi, in contrast, is a typical Hindu Sanatani Indian. He will not go that far, though he should have on some issues that made the majority Hindus irrelevant by the pre-2014 governments.

I indulge in these thoughts after reading about Washington woman Bishop's speech at the Presidential inaugural prayer service on 21st January 2025.

The provocation for Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde to make a direct plea to (or attack on?) the US President Donald Trump, who was present along with his wife Melania Trump and Vice-President JD Vance present along with his wife Usha Vance, was Trump's speech after the oath-taking. He said, "As of today, it will henceforth be the official policy of the United States government that there are only two genders, male and female."

If this is social engineering of gay, lesbian and transgender, this will lead to fear in their lives, according to the Bishop.

Trump had also vowed, in his speech, to end the earlier government's policy of trying to socially engineer Race and Gender into every aspect of public and private life. He said, "We will forge a society that is colour blind and merit based." He further announced restrictions on immigration and to end Birthright Citizenship.

Well, the whole hell broke loose in the opposite camp and the first stone was thrown by Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde, who said:

"Let me make one final plea Mr. President. You told the nation yesterday, you have felt the providential hand of a loving God. In the name of our God, I ask you to have mercy upon the people in our country who are scared now.

"There are gay, lesbian and transgender children in Democratic, Republican and independent families, some who fear for their lives. And the people, the people who pick our crops and clean our office buildings, who labour in poultry farms and meat-packing plants, who wash the dishes after we eat in restaurants and work the night shifts in hospitals. They may not be citizens or have the proper documentation, but the vast majority of immigrants are not criminals.

"Our God teaches us that we are to be merciful to the stranger, for we were all once strangers in this land. May God grant us the strength and courage to honour the dignity of every human being, to speak the truth to one another in love and walk humbly with each other and our God for the good of all people, good of all people in this nation and the world. Amen."

America is a Democracy of a Presidential form with the President armed with immense power in comparison to Indian Democracy of a Parliamentary form. In our Democracy, neither the President nor the Prime Minister has such absolute power as an American President has. Yet, with majority in the Parliament and an enabling provision in our Constitution for an Ordinance route, to bypass the Parliament, in case of exigencies, Modi must do for all-Indians what he must in the name of liberty, equality, fraternity, social justice and equal application of secular principles, without discrimination on the basis of 'majority' and 'minority.'

Remember in 2013 the then Congress Party Vice-President Rahul Gandhi tore into an Ordinance brought in by his party-led UPA government? And Dr. Manmohan Singh, the then Prime Minister, was made a pathetic spectacle in the eyes of the people. He could not do anything to undo what Rahul Gandhi did. But now Prime Minister Modi is not in a situation in which Dr. Manmohan Singh was. In the circumstances, Modi may well learn a few lessons from Trump to Make India First for the first time.

Be that as it may, what interested me was Trump's reaction to Bishop Budde's sermon. It was characteristic of Trump the world has known. He slammed the sermon as 'nasty, boring and uninspiring.' I remembered English Philosopher Thomas Hobbes, who famously said, "Without a government life would be 'solitary, poor, nasty, brutish and short'."

Trump said, the Bishop failed to mention about the large number of illegal immigrants — some from criminal background, from jail, mental institutions. A similar problem is haunting India. In the past invading marauders came to India, now illegal immigrants are coming.

Donald Trump said, "She is not very good in her job! She and her Church owe the public an apology." In India too there are many from the past rulers and the places of worship who owe the people of India an apology for the historical wrongs they are guilty of. May be, India should bide its time or take some lessons from Trump in asserting the authority and in reclaiming the lost heritage of our country.

Artificial Water Spring!

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (RK&BS)- Following the damage in the valve of a drinking water pipe near Valmiki Junction at Vinayakanagar (Paduvarahalli) in city early this morning, an artificial water spring was created for some time, resulting in wastage of gallons of water.

It is surmised that, the valve of the drinking water pipe, opposite the petrol bunk on Valmiki Road, may have come off, due to increase in water pressure. The video of water springing up to 15 feet, above the street light, had been circulated on social media.

As the incident came to notice, Ashwin, Executive Engineer of Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW), initiated the repair works, by reducing the water pressure.

Mysuru-Nanjangud NH to be accident-free soon

Infrastructure upgrades

Despite previous safety measures such as high-mast lighting, speed breakers, zebra line humps, cat eyes, blinkers and road dividers, accidents have continued to occur. To achieve a significant reduction in fatalities and improve commuter safety, NHAI has now prioritised the construction of over-bridges and under-bridges to separate high-speed vehicular traffic from local and pedestrian movement.

NHAI officials confirmed that tenders have been issued for the proposed projects, with some works already underway, while others will commence soon. The infrastructure plan includes the construction of pedestrian bridges, underpasses and vehicle overpasses at critical accident-prone locations.

With rigorous data analysis from past accident reports, NHAI is ensuring that each infrastructure upgrade directly addresses high-risk zones, reducing the likelihood of accidents.

These improvements, once completed, will not only enhance public safety but also streamline traffic flow, preventing congestion-related hazards. By transforming the Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway into an accident-free zone, NHAI aims to protect lives, improve road discipline and create a safer, more reliable transport corridor for commuters, residents and businesses.

Key safety projects along Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway

As part of the master plan, joint surveys conducted by NHAI and the Public Works Department (PWD) have pinpointed repetitive accident zones where the following infrastructure improvements will be undertaken:

- Two under-bridges at APMC, Bandipalya, connecting the Nanjangud Highway with the Outer Ring Road (ORR) to facilitate the safe movement of heavy vehicles and goods transport.
- An over-bridge at Yelachageri in Nanjangud Taluk, reducing collision risks at high-speed intersections.
- Under-bridges at Kalale Gate and Hosahalli, ensuring safe passage for light motor vehicles.
- Separate bridges at Kadakola, one for light motor vehicles and another for pedestrians preventing dangerous pedestrian crossings.
- An under-bridge near Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram, enhancing safety.
- A dedicated under-bridge at Kempaiahnahundi, providing segregated movement for vehicles and pedestrians.
- Under-bridges at Bannikuppe, improving connectivity for both light and heavy vehicles along the Bengaluru-Mysuru National Highway (NH 275).

Interim relief to retired Judge

Instead of considering the same, the Central Government has barred P.N. Desai. Referring to an office memorandum of the authority dated 2009, it was informed that consent of selected candidates should be obtained before sending the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet (ACC) proposal to the Secretariat of the Appointments Committee of the Government of India.

Further, it provides that if the candidate does not join within 30 days, the administrative department should issue a 15-day notice, calling upon the candidate either to join or face debarment clearly spelling out the consequence of debarment.

It was contended that neither the consent was obtained nor a notice was issued to the petitioner before passing the impugned order by the department. Following this, the High Court passed the interim order and orally indicated that on the next date of hearing it would finally decide the petition.

CM to formally inaugurate flyover at Bhagamandala tomorrow

Madikeri, Jan. 30 (PS&BCT)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah will formally inaugurate the Bhagamandala flyover in the Cauvery basin on Friday (Jan. 31).

He will be accompanied by Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar, Large and Medium Scale Industries Minister M.B. Patil, MLAs A.S. Ponnanna, Dr. Manthar Gowda and other dignitaries. The Rs. 30 crore project, aimed at addressing frequent flooding in the region, was executed by Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited (CNNL).

Before the inauguration, Siddaramaiah will visit Talacauvery at 1.30 pm. The flyover inauguration is scheduled for 3 pm, linking Bhagamandala and Napoklu, providing a critical transport corridor to prevent travel disruptions caused by seasonal floods.

Relief for residents

Though opened for traffic in May 2024, the flyover is now being officially inaugurated. The region, particularly Brahmagiri Hills, Talacauvery, Korangala, Cherangala and Bhagamandala, experiences heavy monsoon rainfall, leading to severe flooding at Triveni Sangama, where the Cauvery, Kannike and Sujyothi rivers converge. This results in frequent road closures on the Madikeri-Bhagamandala-Talacauvery and Bhagamandala-Ayyangeri-Napoklu routes.

Flooded roads not only cut off Bhagamandala, temporarily turning it into an island, but also cause immense hardship for residents, students and businesses. With essential supplies blocked, villagers struggle for basic necessities, and schoolchildren are often unable to attend classes. The completion of the flyover has now eliminated these challenges, ensuring uninterrupted connectivity even during heavy rains.

The 880-metre-long flyover, supported by 36 pillars, includes a 200-metre connecting road with underground drainage (UGD) facilities. It has been designed to withstand vehicles weighing over 60 tonnes, with a speed limit of 40 kmph. Authorities have also installed streetlights and rainwater drainage pipelines, with all painting and finishing works completed.

B-Khata

According to official estimates, Karnataka has around 55 lakh properties under ULB jurisdictions (excluding Bengaluru). While 22 lakh property owners have already obtained e-Khata, nearly 30-32 lakh properties remain undocumented. This initiative will provide legal recognition to thousands of property owners, allowing them to pay taxes, access municipal services and apply for loans — offering a long-awaited solution to property regularisation issues in urban Karnataka.

City remembers Mahatma Gandhi on Sarvodaya Day

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (BLU&DM)- "Dr. B.R. Ambedkar had said that only those who have understood history can create history," said Karnataka State Higher Education Council Vice-Chairman Prof. S.R. Niranjana.

He was speaking after inaugurating the 77th Sarvodaya Day (Death Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi) in honour of Mahatma Gandhi, organised by Centre for Gandhian Studies, University of Mysore (UoM) in association with Seshadripuram Degree College at Gandhi Bhavan in Manasagangothri campus here this morning.

Stressing on the need for participating in such programmes in order to understand history, Prof. Niranjana opined that history can then only be created. Maintaining that the UoM has a rich history, he said that Nalanda University which existed in the ancient times, had as many as 10,000 students and 2,000 faculty members.

"It is because of the movements launched and the sacrifices made by great leaders such as Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru during the pre-independence days, that we are leading a good life now. The seeds sown by great leaders have now grown as huge plants, paving the way for us to lead a satisfactory life.

During the pre-independence era, India was rattled with poverty, unemployment and such other problems. But in the Post-Independence era, India saw a Green Revolution, with the country becoming self-sufficient in food and the Industrial sector began to blossom. Nehru used to often say that we have to study and develop technology. Then, there were only 4 IITs. But now there are 24 of them which have been established with a purpose of providing the latest education and development of skills", he noted.

Continuing, Prof. Niranjana said that the State Government has sanctioned Rs.100 crore for organising programmes on Mahatma Gandhi throughout the year. Both the Government and private educational institutions should come forward for the construction of Gandhi Bhavans in their campus out of this fund. The Government is willing to sanction more funds if necessary for the conduct of programmes focussing on Mahatma Gandhi, he said adding that it is important to include the Mahatma's innumerable contributions to the society, in academics at all levels.

JSS Mahavidyapeetha former Kannada faculty Prof. H.J. Saraswathi delivered a special lecture on the topic "The relevance of Gandhiji in today's life".

Yashoda, an MCC Pourabandhu, was felicitated on the occasion.

UoM Registrar M.K. Savitha, Prof.K. Sowmya Erappa, Principal of Seshadripuram Degree College, Centre for Gandhian Studies Director Prof.S. Narendrakumar, Prof. Krupalani and others were present.

Students take out procession from Manuvana Park to Rangayana

The Sarvodaya Day was observed at many other Institutions across the city. The Janandolanagala Mahamaitri (JMM), in association with Gandhi Vichara Parishat, Mysuru and Pragatipara Sanghatanegala Okkuta, had organised a programme to honour Mahatma Gandhi, at Rangayana premises on Hunsur road in the city this morning. The programme had the themes 'Kollalaagadu Gandhiyanu, Alisalaagadu Avara Nenapanu' and 'Samvidhana Namma Usiru, Gandhi Nitya Hasiru'. As part of the event, children from different schools performed dramas on Mahatma Gandhi's life and vision, following which a stage programme was held. Earlier, school children took out a procession from Manuvana Park opposite the City Courts complex to Rangayana.

Prevent jumbos from straying out of forest in summer: Minister Khandre

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (MTY&BS)- In view of the summer, Minister of Forest, Ecology and Environment Eshwar Khandre has instructed the officials to effectively maintain the Elephant Proof Trenches (EPT) and Solar Fences, to check the menace of wild elephants at the villages in forest fringes and to prevent wild fire.

He was addressing a meeting of Senior Forest Officers of Mysuru Circle at Aranya Bhavan, Ashokapuram in the city yesterday.

Precautions should be taken to check wild fire and the Fire Extinguishers should be kept ready to douse the fire. The Forest personnel in all the ranges should keep a vigil and in case of any fire, they have to swung into action by dousing the flames to save forest resources. Awareness should be created among the villagers in forest fringes, about wild fire, to win over their confidence, he said.

Steps should be taken to ensure that there won't be any lack of water facility for the wild animals during summer.

"We should look whether the solar borewells inside the forest are functional and supply water to the lakes from the borewells," said Khandre.

The incidents of man-animal conflicts in the jurisdiction of Mysuru Circle of the Forest Department should be brought under control, he said, reiterating about the steps taken so far to control the wild elephants from straying into the villages.

He also directed the officials to take action to totally prohibit single use plastic towards the conservation of environment in the city, with the Mysuru City already declared as 'Single Use Plastic-Free City.' Action should be taken to stop the sales of plastic carry bags, bottles, plates, cups, banners, buntings among other products, including the supply and stocking of the banned articles. Fine should be imposed on offenders, by carrying out regular inspections in this regard, added Khandre.

> During summer, there should be no scarcity of drinking water in urban and rural areas. The quality of water supplied from water tankers should be monitored regularly to ensure that there won't be any contamination of water. There are complaints over the contaminated water and UGD water being diverted to the lakes. The reason behind UGD water diverted towards the lake through Raja Kaluve, without reaching Sewage Treatment Plant (STP) should be identified.

WORD OF THE DAY

Circuitous

Pronunciation: ser-KYOO-uh-tus (adjective).

Meaning: If something — such as a path, route or journey—is described as circuitous, it is not straight, short and direct, but rather takes a circular or winding course. Circuitous can also describe speech or writing that is not said or done simply or clearly.

Origin: In J.R.R. Tolkien's The Hobbit, titular hero Bilbo Baggins takes a circuitous route to Lonely Mountain, which he helps to reclaim from a monstrous dragon. Although he successfully arrives there — and returns home again — we do not use the adjective circuitous to suggest that his path traces a perfect circle. We'll get straight to it: although both circuitous and its relative circuit share roots in circus, Latin word for "circle" (and ancestor of English words circle and circus), neither need conjure something shaped like, say, a ring. Just as the noun circuit can refer to an indirect route, circuitous describes routes which can appear circular when mapped, but can also be jagged, squiggly, etc. The point is that a journey such as Bilbo's is not straight, short, or direct, but rather rambling. When used figuratively, circuitous describes something that is not said or done simply & clearly.

Example: "... like Alice tumbling down the rabbit hole, Ms. Lakey took a circuitous path to open a psychedelic community center. It involved a stint in the Amazon rainforest, a pen-pal in a maximum security federal prison and an auspicious meeting at a sushi restaurant in New Mexico." — Rachel Nuwer, The New York Times, 8 Oct. 2023.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Chew someone out

Meaning: The term "Chew someone out" means verbally scold someone.

Origin: "To chew someone out" originates from US military in the 1940s. It comes from the practice of consistently shouting at someone while being in their personal space, typically touching faces. When viewed by a third party, it looks like the shouter is chewing on the "offender."

Of note, both of these theories claim that the term comes from the 1940s. This is supported by Google's Ngram Viewer, which scans millions of publications released in the last two centuries. Therefore, it is likely this term came to prominence during World War II.

Example: When the boss discovered the mistake, he called the employee into his office to chew him out for the error.
